Arrest of Alleged Thieves. As was stated in the Gazette, Temple Houser was arrested yesterday on sus-picion of stealing money from Mantis Bros. Later in the day William J. Chiskalos, who had been previously suspected of stealing $300 from Mantis Bros., was rearrested as an accomplice Bros., was rearrested as an accomplice of Houser. Tuesday night Mantis Bros. secreted a roll containing between $50 and $60 under a bunch of bananes, but they were careful to mark several of the bills. Yesterday morning the money was gone. In the meantime Lieut. Smith and Policeman Garvey had suspected that Houser, who was employed as a driver by Mc-Carthy & McKenuey, furniture dealers, could solve the mystery, and Policemen Lyles and Jones had been keeping their eyes on the suspect. When the third robbery was reported at police head-quarters yesterday morning Houser was arrested by Officers Jones and Lyles. The roll containing the marked bills was found in his pocket. Houser then made a confession and implicated Chiakslos in the robberies. Yesterday afternoon Policemen Lyles and Jones arrested Chiakalos in Jackson alley, Washington, and brought him to this city and locked him up. In Houser's room in the old City Hotel building the police found several boxes of cigars, a new revolver, a number of articles of new clothing, and a gold watch whichwas identified as Hebrew New Year Services.

The celebration of the Hebrew New Year festivities began at sunset yesterday and there were services in the synago-gue on north Washington street at 7:30 last night. This marked the advent of the year 5667 of the creation of the world, by the Jawish calendar. The ceremonies by the Orthodox Jews will continue until sunset tomorrow, while those of the Reformed Jews will close at sunset this evening. New Year's Day marks the beginning of a series of celebrations, including the most sacred on the Hebrew calendar, the Day of Atonement, which occurs on the tenth day after New Year. It is also known as the Day of Memorial and Day of Judgment. As the Day of Memorial the Hebrews recall all their deeds of the year and seek forgiveness for all the sins that they have committed during that time. They also pray for renewed strength with which to battle the evils and temptations of this world. This day with them is, as it is with the gentiles, a day for the framing of new resolutions.

The services in the synagogue last night were very impressive and were sttended by nearly all the Israelites in the y. There were also present some who not Jews. Rabbi Louis Kopald, of the Hebrew College at Cincinnati, conducted the services and delivered a brief ducted the services and delivered a brief and made an apology for the neglect of the company to comply with the law. The fine was imposed for the negligence that throughout the world the descend ants of Abraham were at the time gathered in their respective places of worship engaged in acts of devotion and thanksgiving to the God of their fathers for the blessings of heaven during the year now closing and invoking a con-finuation of the same during the year to bonie. Wherever, "said the rabbi, the Jew's lot has been cast, whether in Mo-logo as a siave or amid the terrible scenes now being enacted in Russia, or in free America, at sunset he could be seen wending his way toward his syna-

Disorderly Colored Women. Chief Goods last night ordered the arrest of certain young colored women who infest saloons in the northeastern section of the city at night. According to the terms of the license granted to the proprietors of the resorts, they are not allowed to have separate rooms for females, nor are the latter allowed to loaf about the premises. The evidence of Officers Henderson, Jones and Bell, who had arrested thirteen of the de linquents, was that these females sleep all day and emerge from their houses about time the bats begin to fly. They go to the saloons for the purpose of meeting places until they are put out at closing time — generally at midnight. The women, in all stages of drunkenness, afterwards make night hideous and often get to fighting. Justice Caton fined them $5 each.
